Children's Chinese Cultural Activities

Fun for the whole family! Bring your children to the Chinatown Mall Culture Fair Children's Activity Area where children will learn how to make their own Chinese lanterns and fold paper into Chinese zodiac animals in our craft booths.

Face painters can paint your child's face like a Peking Opera singer's mask. The Wisdom Chinese School will show children how to make the high flying Chinese yoyos. Also, Eastwind Books will have a wide selection of books for Chinese children and their families, including Chinese folk tales, books starring Chinese children, culture for kids and other topics most not found at conventional booksellers.

Ping Yuen China Arts Courtyard

Come and visit the Ping Yuen Courtyard to enjoy Chinese paper folding or zhezhi, the art of paper folding that originated in China. It is the predecessor of today's origami. Also enjoy calligraphy, the highest Chinese art form, developed over the centuries in China and later to many Asian cultures, that led to Chinese brush painting starting around 4000 B.C. and continuing for more than 6000 years.

Cultural Demonstration Area

Learn more of ancient Chinese culture with demonstrations of Tai Chi, not only a Wu Dang Quan or an internal Chinese martial art the exercise promotes health and longevity, Chinese yo-yos ?? that dates back to the Ming dynasty; roughly 1386-1644 A.D and not to be missed traditional Chinese music. Scheduled times are:
