Subject: 6th Annual Chinatown Culture Fair | Sunday, September 23, 2012

Dear Friends and Supporters:

Thank you for your participation and support of last year's 2012 Sacramento Chinatown Culture Fair. With your help and the support of the Sacramento Convention and Visitors Bureau, Sacramento Downtown Partnership, City Councilmember Angelique Ashby, and County Supervisor Jimmie Yee, the Annual Chinatown Culture Fair continues to be a huge success. Last year we were pleased to draw over 3000 visitors and over 15 organizations in the Asian and Pacific Islander, East Indian, and Russian communities participating with us in a fun-filled afternoon of arts, lectures, and cultural performances at Sacramento's downtown Historic Chinatown.

Please join us again! We are honored that the Confucius Church of Sacramento will be the lead organization among many diverse organizations for the 6th Annual Chinatown Culture Fair to be held on Sunday, September 23, 2012.

The primary mission of the Culture Fair is to promote the Historic Chinatown and Downtown Sacramento as a destination where families come to enjoy arts and entertainment as well as learn about the cultural and historical heritage of our Asian community. Indeed, the Chinatown Culture Fair will build on the city's ongoing effort to revitalize Sacramento's urban core into a safe, livable, sustainable environment with a vibrant mix of social and cultural activities.

We look forward to working with you again. If you have any questions or need additional information, please visit our Website at <http://www.yeefow.com/culturefair> or feel free to contact me at (916) 392-4095.

Sincerely,

Freeman Lee
